

Judiciary Committee
Hartford Connecticut

March 23rd 2011

To whom it may concern:

Having reviewed the bill, SB 1049, I feel this bill will have no effect on crime. Most criminals do not purchase large capacity magazines, as they don't usually plan to be involved in a prolonged shootout. Most folks I know, that legally have high capacity magazines, use them at the range. An extra 5 rounds seems an insignificant difference.

Should this bill pass, what will be the cost of enforcing it? Who will enforce it? Will the citizens of Connecticut, who legally purchased these magazines, be reimbursed? The 'bad guys' will ALWAYS find a way. Perhaps enforcing the laws already enacted would be a much more sensible approach. We do not need more restrictions on law abiding citizens who enjoy their Second Amendment Rights.

Sincerely,
Meg Sautter
